

Lornette Daye is a globally recognized athlete, coach, motivational speaker, author, entrepreneur, and community leader whose life and career span over 40 years of achievement, impact, and influence. She combines elite athletic experience with executive-level leadership, organizational strategy, and mentorship expertise, empowering individuals and organizations to unlock peak performance, resilience, and purpose-driven success.